

Ottawa, May 23rd 2022

IMPORTANT UPDATE | SCHOOL CLOSURES ON MAY 24 AND STORM IMPACT

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION

Dear Parents and Guardians,

I hope you are well and safe. As you know, a major storm swept through the region on May 21 and caused a great deal of damage.

In order to ensure the safety of our staff and students and to facilitate the clean-up of the affected areas, many schools and daycares will be closed on Tuesday, May 24:

Closed Schools

The following schools will be closed on Tuesday, May 24, 2022:

- Carrefour Jeunesse
- Charlotte-Lemieux
- De La Salle
- Des Sentiers
- Francojeunesse
- Gabrielle-Roy
- Gisèle-Lalonde
- Jeanne-Sauvé
- Julie-Payette
- L'Alternative
- Le Carrefour
- Le Prélude
- Le Sommet
- L'Odyssée
- Louise-Arbour
- Louis-Riel (including the Dome)
- Marie-Curie
- Mamawi
- Maurice-Lapointe
- Mauril-Bélanger
- Michaëlle-Jean
- Michel-Dupuis
- Nouvel Horizon
- Omer-Deslauriers
- Pierre-de-Blois
- Le Transit Day Treatment Programs
- Séraphin-Marion
- Trille des Bois

The CEPEO-managed and partner daycare services at these schools are also closed.

Opened Schools

The following schools and their daycare services will be open as usual.

- Cité Jeunesse
- De la Rivière Castor
- L'Académie de la Seigneurie
- L'Équinoxe
- L'Héritage
- Madeleine-de-Roybon
- Marc-Garneau
- Mille-Îles
- Rivière Rideau
- Rose des Vents
- Terre des Jeunes

Closed schools will not offer virtual or asynchronous instruction. Open schools will operate as usual.

PAVÉ

For all elementary and secondary PAVÉ students, asynchronous instruction (independent work) will be offered on Tuesday, May 24.

Transportation

Please follow the usual channels of communication to monitor the status of school and public transportation:

Consortium de transport scolaire d'Ottawa

Consortium de transport scolaire de l'Est

OC Transpo

Unless otherwise noted, schools will be open on May 25.

We thank you for your understanding and wish you a safe week.

Sylvie C.R. Tremblay
Director of Education